

THE STEALTH JOB SEARCH

LINKEDIN TIPS

Looking for a job while working full-time is a difficult task. On top of the time commitment, you need to be cautious about networking efforts. Follow these LinkedIn Tips to keep your job search private from your current employer.

TURN OFF ACTIVITY BROADCASTS

- If you are making multiple changes to your profile, turn off the activity broadcast setting. This means people will not be alerted when you edit your profile, make recommendations, or follow companies.
- How do I do it?
  - Click Me and select Settings & Privacy
  - Once in the settings, select Privacy in the top middle of the page
  - Scroll halfway down the page to Sharing profile edits and select No.

SELECT WHAT OTHERS SEE WHEN YOU'VE VIEWED THEIR PROFILE

- People can see your photo, name, and headline once you view their profile. You can change this setting so that you are completely anonymous, but then you won't be able to see information for those who have viewed your profile. LinkedIn is a two-way street focused on connecting people, so take this into consideration.
- How do I do it?
  - Click Me and select Settings & Privacy
  - Once in the settings, select Privacy in the top middle of the page
  - Choose Profile viewing options and select Privacy mode.

ADD SKILLS TO YOUR HEADLINE

- After your job title, add some responsibilities and transferable skills you use in your current job.
- Example: "Marketing Manager, XYZ Corp | Social Media | Product Development"

USE THE SUMMARY TO YOUR ADVANTAGE

- Share information about your current role and general work experience. Then, mention what you like most about your work, highlighting transferable skills. This signals to recruiters what skills you have, what you're passionate about, and what you have to offer. Lastly, put a general call to action like "I'm always interested in new connections."

POST STATUS UPDATES TO SHOW YOU ARE A THOUGHT LEADER IN YOUR INDUSTRY

- If you are a career switcher, focus on general topics like leadership, communication, etc.

CHOOSE WHICH GROUPS ARE VISIBLE ON YOUR PROFILE

- Go to Me and scroll down to click on one of your groups. This will bring you to that particular group's page, but it will also display My Groups at the top of the page.
- Click on My Groups and a list of all your groups will appear with a security dial next to each.
- From here, select Group Settings. Check or uncheck Display the group logo. You can also determine what types of communication you are interested in receiving from the group.
- Tip: If you want to get involved in a group discussion but don't want the entire group to see, you have the option to Reply privately

USE A PERSONAL EMAIL ADDRESS TO SET-UP YOUR LINKEDIN ACCOUNT, NOT YOUR COMPANY EMAIL

- All job search activity on LinkedIn (including job views, searches and applications) is private and is not shared with your connections.

SET YOUR JOB SEARCH PREFERENCES – INCLUDING INDICATING THAT YOU ARE AN “INTERESTED CANDIDATE”

- Update your job search preferences to receive updates about jobs that fit your search criteria. There is also a new feature that lets recruiters know that you are thinking of making a career move but it does not alert recruiters at your current organization.
- How do I do it?
  - Select Jobs tab the banner at the top
  - Within the Jobs tab, select Update career interests
  - Update any job search criteria (location, title, and industry)
  - Turn on Let recruiters know you're open to indicate that you are an interested candidate

The screenshot shows the 'Career interests' settings page on LinkedIn. At the top right, there is a link for 'Privacy settings'. The main section is titled 'Let recruiters know you're open' and includes a sub-note: 'We take steps not to show your current company that you're open, but can't guarantee complete privacy. Learn more'. To the right of this text is a toggle switch labeled 'On' which is currently turned on. Below this is a text input field labeled 'Note to recruiters (optional)' with the placeholder text 'What would you like recruiters to know?'. At the bottom left of the input field, it shows '0/300' characters.
